QUALIFYING CLAUSE IN THEIR HARMONY.

St. Louis Republicans Are Willing to Get Together All Over the City-With a Knife.

CANDIDATES AFTER BARTHOLDT

Politicians Do Not Want Charles Nagel Made an Issue in the Primaries-Candidates for Circuit Judges.

"Every Republican in St. Louis is for haroney-with a knife," said a well-posted member of the party in discussing the present condition of the organization in this city. Efforts have been made to spread the impression that all was serene since the President announced his policy of recognizing the Congressmen from the Tenth and Eleventh Missouri districts, together with the State chairman. "But," added the Republican who knows, "serenity, like purity in politics, is an iridescent dream."

As was predicted, the storm center of the factional fight in St. Louis is in Congress-man Bartholdt's bailiwick. The South Side Congressman has a coterie of close friends who think that "our Dick" can do no wrong. The opposition can see nothing good in his present actions. Some have one reason, some another, but they are all "an-tis," they are all against Bartholdt, and they may get together. If they do, Richard Bartholdt will be an applicant for a consular appointment, Germany preferred, at the expiration of his present term.

Congressional Candidates Appear. As was expected, this opposition to the alleged duplicities of the dispenser of Federal patronage has crystallized. The candidates are beginning to put up their rods know that Bartholdt has about served his term of usefulness.

"And if we can't unite on one of these Republicans," remarked one of the antis, "we will find one on whom we can unite. It will take a barrel of consid rable dimensions, but that ought not to be hard to find when it is considered that a Republican majority of about 20,000 stands ready to make the rooster crow. And if we do beat Bartholdt, you can say right now that the President will have to back water on giving him a consulship. We have seen a letter which Bartholdt wrote to a Democratic brewer asking for his help in the prima les. If that does not finish him, why, we will go a little deeper in another direction. We are for harmony—but with Bartholdt eliminated."

A Republican Hoodoo.

Having little connection therewith, but showing another side of the Republican harmony—with a knife—are the declarations made by certain members of the Republican City Central Committee regarding the selection of Charles Nagel as "legal adviser." mittee; that is, it the present keeps faith.

"Faith or no faith," said a disaffected committeeman, "the appointment of Nagel was political suicide. Suppose we let him remain there and nominate a ticket for next fall. I can see the labor unions spreading tickets headed 'Nagel' and 'Anti-Nagel,' with liberal reminders of the posse comitatus. I know that it would be wrong—for I believe that Mr. Nagel did just right—but that is not the question. We want tatus. I know that it would be wrong-for I believe that Mr. Nagel did just right—but that is not the question. We want votes. We politicians don't take much stock in that talk about the goo-goo who would rather be right than be President.

"I do not see how "Tub' Becker or Pat Clarke or Billy Hahn can expect any strength in their wards after standing for Nagel. It was at Clarke's house that the caucus met which decided on appointing Mr. Nagel as legal adviser. Let Pat Clarke go to the primaries on that issue and the labor unions in his ward will make him wonder where the votes of the other fellow came from.

"That is the reason I say that the St. Louis Republican Club need expect no assistance in the next City Central Committee. We don't intend to repeat the Pollman and Klein experiment. This 'dare to be Daniel' business is very nice in the

I don't say that Mr. Nagel did this, but if he did not, he gave to the President a different brand of conversation from that given by every other Akins man who went from this city. I like Mr. Nagel personally, but I do not see how he can consistently turn around and become the so-called legal adviser of a gang of which he thinks so little. Perhaps that is the price he pays for becoming the Roosevelt leader in Missouri. MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP DEBATE Isaac H. Lionberger Will Oppose Lee Meriwether in the Discussion

A debate on the municipal ownership of public utilities between I. H. Lionberger and Lee Meriwether will be held at the Central Young Men's Christian Association uilding, Grand and Franklin avenues. Tuesday evening, January 28, all citizens of St. Louis being invited to attend and to participate in the after-discussion. Mr. Lionberger will champion the cause of private ownership, endeavoring to explain its economic advantages to the com-munity. Mr. Meriwether, who is the leader of the local Public Ownership party and a defeated candidate on that ticket for the mayoralty, will, in opposition, argue his torically from recent movements in the di-rection of his favorite policy.

J. H. Daues told how the Chicago fire was started by a candle which was kicked over by a cow. He said that if some one had been on hand to extinguish the flame the conflagration would have been prevented. "The conditions are about the same in this parish." he said. "and we want to act at once before the job becomes too large for us to handle. You have heard that undesirable persons have already established themselves in your midst. You should go to work at once and have them removed and not wait for a hundred of more of them to get a footing here." It is expected that the discussion follow-ing the debate will be one of the most in-teresting features of the evening's pro-gramme. "The more turbulent it becomes, the better I shall like it." said Mr. Lionberger yesterday. Mr. Meriwether said that he would welcome a free exchange of ideas. as this might provoke the best thought of both speakers.

avenues at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, elected officers and discussed a policy for the next campaign.

Captain C. H. Tandy of No. 1224 Bayard avenue was elected president and assumed his duties at once. He said that in his opinion the 10,000 negro voters of St. Louis wanted no more of Ziegenheinism and no more of the kind of treatment the Republican party had been giving the negro voter of St. Louis for the last ten years.

"For my part," he said, "the scheme of Republican managers in herding the neg oes through the campaign and bidding for their votes with a little beer and a few cold sandwiches, then telling them after the election to take a back seat, don't go any more. We want representation on the City Central Committee, the State Committee and in the offices. We are entitled to it and we'll have it."

D. W. Holland of No. 2007 St. Charles street, who was elected secretary, made a long speech indorsing Captain Tandy's remarks, adding that the nigro had about learned to vote where he thought it to his best interest. R. C. Robinson of No. 2622 Morgan street was elected assistant secretary. A committee of three was appointed to organize committees in every ward in the city to look after the registration of negro voters.

Omega Oil You hear a good deal of the great progress in medical science, but there hasn't been so much progress after all. The doctors have not been able to improve on many of the simple old remedies used during the last hundred years. Every mother knows that old-fashioned sweet oil is a good thing to rub on the nose, throat and chest for a cold, and a doctor can't prescribe anything better or safer except Omega Oil. This Oil does all that sweet oil can do, and besides that it contains other ingredients that check and cure a cold in a wonderfully short time. It can be used on children with perfect safety, as it does not blister. A bottle in the house all the time may save a life or a doctor's bill.
